Ann (Nancy) Williams

Birth 15 Mar 1762 in Buttermilk Falls, Orange CO, NY

Death aft 1839 in possibly Brooklyn, Kings, NY

Media Gallery

No photos, stories, audio or video have been added yet.

Timeline

1762 15 Mar — Birth — 1 Source

Buttermilk Falls, Orange CO, NY

Ann nicknamed "Nancy" because there were too many named Ann in the family (ref. her widow's pension)

1783 5 May Age: 21 — Marriage to Isaiah Smith

Buttermilk Falls, on the shore of Hudson River under New West Point, Orange Co., NY

Isaiah, a soldier married Ann Williams before the Rev. War ended. (ref. widow's pension papers)

1830 Age: 68 — Residence — 1 Source

Canadice, Ontario Co., NY

p. 261. Anna Smith males: (0):: females: 1 (15-20 [probably Abigail]); 1 (60-70), living next door to dau. Ann and Jonas Quick family. Probably moved to Kings Co., NY to live with dau. Hannah J. Ward after this census taken.

1838 26 Jan Age: 75 — Military

Brooklyn Kings, NY

Ann or Nancy Smith, Widow's pension W17826. Six of her eight children living in 1838. Not confirmed which of her children was parent of Abigail Smith raised by Isaiah and Ann Smith (ref. 1820 Jonas Quick pension application, Ontario Co., NY)

1839 aft Age: 77 — Death — 1 Source

possibly Brooklyn, Kings, NY

No further record after widow's pension in 1839. Pension money sent to G. Kemble at Cold Springs, NY with no reason given

View Details

Comments

+ Add Comment

Family Members

Parents

Richard Williams 1727 – 1807

Elizabeth Elliott 1741 –

Show siblings

Spouse & Children

Isaiah Smith 1757 – 1825

Mehitable Mariah Smith 1783 –

Ann Smith 1785 – 1855

Sabriah Smith 1787 – 1869

Isaiah Smith Jr 1789 – 1824

Samuel Smith 1791 –

Caten John Smith 1793 –

Robert Williams Smith 1795 – 1838

Hannah Jane Smith 1797 –

View Family Group Sheet

Source Information

1830 United States Federal Census
1 citation provides evidence for Name, Residence

Family Data Collection - Individual Records
1 citation provides evidence for Name, Birth, Death

View All Sources