About Margaret Buzzell

On 4 Jul. 1659 Margaret Wormwood "alias Bussy" was presented by the Grand Jury at York, ME. for the crime of having a "Bastard" child, and she and Simon were sentenced to be publicly whipped, each receiving ten strokes on their bare backs. This sentence was to be carried out and the "strokes" administered by the appointed officials "appointed for that purpose" from the towns of Old Falmouth (Portland) and Scarborough Maine.[2 - V2, p81, 455] My question about this is why were the officials from Falmouth and Scarborough appointed to carry out the sentence since Simon appears to have been in Cape Porpoise for at least the three previous years? Did the offense date to earlier than this date or did Simeon return to Scarborough in the interim years?
