NOTE: The creator of this memorial transferred it to the current manager when questioned about Henry and Hannah Rust. The information below is from the creator and will inevitably be updated/changed after more research. As of right now, the manager has no actual proof that either Hannah or Henry Rust is buried here, although this cemetery would seem logical. If such proof cannot be found, their memorials are subject to deletion.

Our 10th great grand father. Does anyone have more information on where he was born in Hingham England as I am not finding this information on the hingham.org.uk registry? There was a reference to his/our family going back as far as back as Germany in 131...(Read more)
