

THE WILL OF EDMUND LITTLEFIELD

The last will & Testament of Edmund Littlefield December 11:61:
First I bequeath my soule to god Almighty, & I bequeath my body to the earth from whence I came/

I becueath vnto Francis Littlefield my Eldest sun & Anthony Littlefield, & Elizabeth Wakefield my daughter, all the whoole Tract of Land lijing of the North East side of Kennebunke with the Falls together with a Certen quantity of Marsh lijing vp In the woods, between Cape Porpus River & Kennebunke, which is specifyd in two deeds, granted by Mr Geo: Cleeue Agent of Mr Rygy, which is now come into the Government of Mr Gorges, Proprietor of the Prouince of Mayne/ Which Land & Marsh shall bee aequally devided amongst those three aboue specifyd/

I give vnto Francis Littlefield Senjo'r 10's to bee pd out of my goods/

I give vnto Anthony Littlefield all my weareing Cloaths/

I give vnto Elizabeth Wakefield 5's to bee pd out of my goods/

I give vnto my 3 executors Namely Annas Littlefield, My wife, & Thom's Littlefield, and Fran: Littlefield my youngest sun all my vpland & Marsh att home which is not disposd, & which I bought of my sun Anthony, & alsoe y't which I bought of Mr Fletcher, together with y'e Corne Mill & saw Mill, with all my houseing and goods, within doores & with out, together with all the stocke & Cattle both small and greata, which shall bee aequally devided amongst those 3 executors, onely the Yland that lyeth on the South side of Webbhanett River, If the sd Tho's & Francis Littlefield Junjo'r do both of them pay to Annas my wife foure bush's of Corne yearely for 7 yeares, then my wife shall have nothing to do with itt, otherwise if they do not pforme that yearely, then my wife shall have pouer to lett it to others, & to expell them quitte out of it all/

And likewise my sun Thom's & Fran: Littlefield shall pay vnto my wife eight bush's of wheate yearely, for y'e Corne Mill, if they will npt y'n my wife shall have pouer to lett it to any other, & expell them out of it/ And my wife whall have her third part of the Marsh, tht lyeth on the South East side of Webbhanett River; And if soe bee y't Fran: Littlefield, & thomas Littlefield, & Fran: Littlefield my youngest sun be loueing and helpfull to y'r mother my wife, then they shall haue all after her descase, otherwise if they bee not loueing and helpfull to her shee shall haue pouer to dispose of itt, w'r shee thinkes good herselfe/

I give vnto my daughter Mary Barrett, and to my daughter Hallah Littlefield fiveteene pound's a peece to bee pd with in 3 years, five pound's a peece yearely, till it bee payd. I do give vnto all my grandchildren five shillings a peece W'n they come at age/

I give vnto my sun John Littlefield Tenn pound's to bee payd out of ye fourty pound's which hee is to pay for his purchase at Ogunquett/

Alsoe the 3 executors, Namely Annas my wife, & Tho: & Fran: Littlefield shall haue pouer to recover & receaue all depts. And those 3 executors shall pay all depts dues and demand's, and all