

Michael Stucker

Birth: Dec. 23, 1759
 Death: Mar. 28, 1830

Michael Stucker b. 12-23-1759 d. 5-28-1830 fought in the Revolution in PA along with his father "George Stucker 1733-May 6, 1780" in Jacob Arndts Co. prior to 1778. George was killed at Grant's Fort near Lexington. He and a brother and a woman named Mitchell were killed by Indians who sent the rest of the people back to Bryan's Station before they burned the fort and it is now called Burnt Station.

Supposedly Michael died in Franklin Co., KY and was taken back to the old Henry Stucker farm for burial. Henry was his brother.

Family links:

Parents:

George Stucker (1733 - 1780)

Spouse:

Nancy Anne Vaughn Stucker (1761 - 1838)

Children:

Jacob Stucker (1789 - 1863)*

Nancy Stucker Stansbery (1795 - 1830)*

Jeptha Stucker (1805 - 1889)*

Sibling:

Michael Stucker (1759 - 1830)

John Stucker (1762 - 1852)*

*Calculated relationship

Burial:

Maddox Cemetery

Saluda

Jefferson County

Indiana, USA

Plot: Unmarked Grave

Created by: Juett D. Stucker, Sr.

Record added: Dec 30, 2010

Find A Grave Memorial# 63484355

Added by: Juett D. Stucker, Sr.

Added by: Juett D. Stucker, Sr.

4th Great Grandfather of Jim
 - Barbara A. in CA

Added: Sep. 6, 2016

~RIP~ 5th Great-Grand Uncle
 - Kat

Added: Apr. 30, 2016