

FIFTH GENERATION.

13 ¹JOHN⁴, (ISAAC³, ISAAC², ISAAC¹).

Born in New Haven, Conn., about 1685. Married Elizabeth——. He removed to Norwich, Conn., about 1711 or 1712, and was one of the first Selectmen in 1721. From there he removed to Warwick, Rhode Island, where he was admitted as a freeman, May, 1739. On August 3, 1741, the west end of the town, where he lived and had his farm, was set off as Coventry, and he was admitted a freeman in that town, May, 1742. (Rhode Island Vital Record.) His wife, Elizabeth, whose maiden name is unknown, survived him many years and removed, with a daughter who married a Mr. Sweet, to the State of New York. He died in Coventry about 1750. His children were born in Norwich, Conn., and the Town Records show the dates of their birth to be as follows :

FOURTH GENERATION.

8 ²ISAAC³, (ISAAC², ISAAC¹).

Born at New Haven, June 11, 1655. He accompanied his father to Virginia when a child, but returned to New Haven about 1683, and resided there, and possibly at Norwich, in the same State, during most of the remainder of his life, following his son, John⁴, to Coventry, Rhode Island, shortly before his death, the exact date of which is not known. He was a farmer, and also a dealer in the products of the country, a quiet business man, taking but little part in public affairs, but it is said, serving with credit in the Indian wars. (See Appendix, note C.)

Children. Born in New Haven, Conn.

13 ¹JOHN⁴, born about 1685; m. Elizabeth——.

14 ²JESSE⁴, born 1686 or 1687.

15 ³ISAAC⁴, born about 1696. Died young.

16 ⁴THOMAS⁴, born (?).

NOTE.—⁴Thomas 4 is not in the former Edition and is conjectural. He came to Norwich at the same time as ¹John 4 in 1711, and apparently with him. Purchased a farm of Rene Grignon. Had his cattle mark recorded in 1712. In March 1714-15 he conveyed the farm back to Grignon, and no other record has been found of him. He was probably another son of ²Isaac 3.

THIRD GENERATION.

6 ⁵ISAAC² (ISAAC¹).

Born in Plymouth, Mass., in 1630. Graduated from Harvard College in 1650, being in the seventh class that graduated from that institution. He accompanied his father, subsequently, on his voyages between Plymouth, New Haven, New Amsterdam and Virginia, and was associated with him in the coasting business. After his father's death in 1659, he purchased from the creditors of his estate, the dwelling-house, orchard and barn, with two acres of meadow, and in the New Haven Records we find a deed recorded, dated October 4, 1660, by which he conveys to his "Mother-in-law, "Mrs. Johanna Allerton, the house that she now dwells in at New "Haven, with all the furniture in it and the lands and appurtenances "belonging to it, to hold and enjoy during the term of her life, and "afterward to return into the possession of his daughter Elizabeth "Allerton and her heirs, and in case of her dyeing without issue, then "to return to him the first donor, and his heirs and executors without "intermission."

To this deed, after it was recorded, was added on the margin of the book the following "true record" of a postscript, "This deed, though "never witnessed when granted, I do hereby confirm, to all intents and "purposes, as if it had been authentically witnessed, and so sign and "seal the same in presence of

" March 10,
" 1682-3.

JOHN SALMON,
WILLIAM CORFIELD.
ISAAC ALLERTON."

Isaac married as early as 1652 a wife whose name was Elizabeth—but her maiden name or the exact place of their marriage is unknown. He resided in New Haven, Conn., and had three children born there. His wife probably died about 1660.

He bought land as early as 1655 at Wicomico, Northumberland County, Virginia, to which place he probably removed after the death of his wife, and married there as his second wife, about 1663, Elizabeth Willoughby, daughter of Captain Thomas Willoughby. Isaac Allerton was her third husband, she being widow of Simon Overzee and Colonel George Colclough. (See Appendix note B.)

The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography says of him (Vol. 1, page 199), "Colonel Isaac Allerton of Westmoreland County, Virginia, was son of Isaac Allerton, one of the principal emigrants in the Mayflower. He was born at Plymouth, Mass., in 1630. Graduated at Harvard College in 1650, and soon came to Virginia and settled in Northumberland County (then including Westmoreland County.)" Colonel Allerton was sworn a Justice of Northumberland County, 22 April, 1663; was a member of the "Committee of the Association of Northumberland, Westmoreland and Stafford Counties," 1 November 1667 (Northumberland Records, also Henning Vol. 2, page 257). In September, 1675, as Major he was second in command to Colonel John Washington of Virginia forces against the Indians, and November 5, 1677, was second in "Committee of the Peace for Westmoreland County and of the Quorum." Member of the House of Burgesses February 1676-7. (Westmoreland Records.)

Virginia Carolorum, by Neill, page 347, recites the fact that "in early summer, 1675, the "Doegs," an Indian tribe of the Potomac, stole from the settlers and afterward killed some of them"—and then says:—"A joint movement of Virginians and Marylanders was arranged to go against them. The Virginians were under command of Colonel John Washington, Colonel George Mason and Major Isaac Allerton." Pages 386-387 say:—"In 1679, for the defense of the County from incursions of the Savages it was enacted that a garrison-house or store-house be erected at the head of the four principal rivers and Major Isaac Allerton, grandson of Elder William Brewster of Plymouth, St. Leger Codd and Colonel George Mason were designated to superintend the building of a house sixty feet long, twenty-two feet broad and a magazine ten feet square, at Neapsico, near Occognar, on the Potomac River." He was appointed a member of the Council in 1683. (Salisbury Extracts.)

In a letter dated June 10, 1691, Governor Nicholson reports to the English Government that Richard Lee, Isaac Allerton and John Armistead, out of scruple of conscience, refused to take the oath and were left out of the Council.

Honorable Isaac Allerton, of Westmoreland County, Virginia, died in 1702. Will was dated 25 October, 1702, witnessed by Humphrey Morriss, John Gerrard, Daniel Ocanny. Proved 30 December, 1702. He describes himself as sick of body, and after a pious prelude, disposes of his estate as follows:—

"To church of Cople Parish £10 sterling, to daughter Sarah Lee and grandson Allerton Newton, two tracts of land in Stafford County, to my dear daughter Elizabeth Starr, also heirs who live in New England, 600 acres of land, part of a dividend of 2150 acres, on south side of Rappahanock River, to her the said Elizabeth and such of her children as she shall dispose of the same to, but in case the said Elizabeth be dead before the date of this my Will, I will and devise the same 600 acres of land to her eldest son and to his heirs forever." He also gives to her heirs the sum of 2000 pounds of tobacco, to be paid upon demand, and 5000 pounds to daughter Sarah Lee, and as daughter Travers has had a sufficient part or proportion of my estate given her in consideration of marriage, I do therefore, for memorial sake, give to her three daughters Elizabeth, Rebecca and Winifred Travers, the sum of 1000 pounds tobacco apiece when 17 years of age, or upon marriage, to grandson Allerton Newton 1000 pounds tobacco when 21. All the remaining part of my lands and tenements, not above bequeathed, how or wheresoever situate and being, to my well beloved son Willoughby Allerton and to his heirs forever. He also bequeaths his son all his personal estate, goods and chattels, real and personal of what kind, sort or quality soever the same may be, and appointed him his executor." (New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 44, pages 292-5.)

Children. By first wife. Born in New Haven, Conn.

7 ¹ELIZABETH³, born September 27, 1658. Married first December 23, 1675, Benjamin Starr, who died in 1678, age 31, leaving one child, Allerton Starr, born January 6, 1677. She married second July 22, 1679, Simon Eyres or Heyres, a sea captain, by whom she had several children, among them were Simon Eyres and Isaac Eyres. Simon died at New Haven, Conn., in 1695. She died November 17, 1740. (See N. E. H. and G. Reg., Vol. 44, pages 290-2.)

8 ²ISAAC³, born June 11, 1655; m——.

9 ³SARAH³, born about 1660; m. Hancock Lee, son of Col. Richard Lee, of Virginia, as his second wife; his first wife was Mary, daughter of Col. William Kendall.

By second wife. Born in Virginia.

10 ⁴DAUGHTER³, born——; m. Mr. Newton. Had son Allerton Newton. (Mentioned in will).

11 ⁵FRANCES³, born——; m. Capt. Samuel Travers. Had daughters Elizabeth, Rebecca and Winifred. (Mentioned in will).

12 ⁶WILLOUGHBY³, born——; m. Hannah Keene, widow of John Bushrod.

NOTE.—The births of Isaac ²Allerton's three eldest children are recorded in the Massachusetts Historical Society's Collection, third series Vol. 7, pages 248-9. The others are found in the New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. 44, pages 290-2. Virginia Genealogies, by H. E. Hayden, page 300, says:—"Capt. Samuel Travers, born Circ 1660, son of William Travers, married about 1685, Frances, daughter of Colonel Isaac Allerton, of Virginia, the son of Isaac Allerton, merchant taylor of London, who emigrated to Massachusetts in the Mayflower."

"Old Churches, Ministers and Families of Virginia," by Bishop Meade, Vol. 2, pages 151-2:—"Here lies the body of John Bushrod, Gentleman, son of Bishoprod by Apphira his wife. He was born in Gloucester, Virginia, January 30, 1663. He took for his wife, Hannah, daughter of William Keene of Northumberland and Elizabeth his wife, and left by her two sons and four daughters. Died 6 February, 1719, in the 56th year of his age."

SECOND GENERATION.

1 ¹ISAAC¹ ALLERTON was born in England between the years 1583 and 1585. Married first in Leyden, Holland, November 4, 1611, Mary Norris of Newbury, England, who died in Plymouth, Mass., February 25, 1625. Married second in 1626 Fear, daughter of Elder William Brewster (see Appendix, Note A). She died in Plymouth, Mass., December 12, 1634. He married third, prior to 1644, Johanna, whose maiden name is not known, she survived him many years, and died in New Haven, Conn., 1682. He died in New Haven "in the beginning of the year 1659". The Inventory of his estate was taken February 12, 1659, and was presented to the Court April 5, 1659.

Children. By first wife. Born in Leyden, Holland.

2 ¹BARTHOLOMEW,² born about 1612. He came over on the Mayflower with his parents, and was a resident of Plymouth in 1627, at the division, among the settlers, of the cattle brought from England, but shortly afterwards he accompanied his father to London, where he married and had children, but he never returned to America, and so far as is known no descendant of his has ever been found in this country.

3 ²REMEMBER³, born in 1614. She came over in the Mayflower, and was living in 1627, but probably died soon after, unmarried.

Doc 10-9

- 4 ³MARY², born June, 1616. She came over in the Mayflower. Married in 1636 Thomas Cushman, and from this family came the Cushman family of Massachusetts. She died in 1699, the last survivor of the Mayflower Pilgrims.
- 5 ⁴SARAH², born January, 1618. Married in 1637 Moses Maverick, of Marblehead. She had a large family of children, and died about 1655 or 1656. She came on the Ann in 1623, in care of her aunt Sarah Priest.

By second wife. Born in Plymouth, Mass.

- 6 ⁵ISAAC², born 1630. Married first Elizabeth ^{Second Eliza-} beth Willoughby. ^{Second Willoughby}

NOTE.—Isaac 1 is said to have had at least two children, beside those mentioned above, but who died in infancy, one of whom was still-born on the Mayflower Monday, 11 December, 1620 (O. S.) This was the second child born since the Pilgrims left Holland.—Gov. BRADFORD'S JOURNAL.
