Marriages at Linby,

1692 to 1837.

NOTE.—“The Register Booke for Linby begun in the year 1692” is of Paper, bound in parchment, and contains 54 leaves on which Baptisms and Burials are recorded, while the first leaf and ten leaves after the Burials are blank, seven leaves are occupied by Marriages, one page of one leaf is used for Baptisms in 1812, followed by nine more blank leaves.

It is commenced A.D. 1692 in the beautiful writing of Rev. Thomas Martyn, the Rector, who was buried January 28, 1720, and was succeeded by the Rev. Andrew Matthews.

The Cotton Mills established at Papplewick at the end of the eighteenth century attracted Labour to this Parish, and many burials of “London boys” euphemistically called Apprentices sent down from the Workhouses to work in the Mills, are recorded from 1800 to 1810.

Volume II. is of paper with parchment cover, beginning in 1756. It has forty-one pages of Weddings on as many leaves, the book being used the reverse way for Banns.

Volume III. is of parchment bound in calf, the first twelve leaves alone having been used from 1792 to 1812.

Volume IV. is of paper, bound in parchment and in the form prescribed in the Act of Parliament passed 28 July 1812. The first twenty-seven pages having been used.

These Registers have been transcribed by Mr. G. G. Bonser and collated by the Rev. A. B. Reid, the Rector, by whose permission they are now printed.

* This marriage, unknown to G. E. C. in the "Complete Baronetage," is apparently a second marriage of Sir John Topp, 2nd Bart. of For-merton, who had disappeared about 1703, when Le Neve says he was "distract," and whose death s.p.m. was assumed to have taken place at some date prior to 1720, when his brother Jeremy was allowed to assume the title as 3rd Baronet. T.M.B.
