Noll History:

GOTT SEGNE DIESE HAUS UND ALTER BALSER NOLL

(God bless this house of old Balse Noll)
The first Noll was Johan George Noll. He traveled down the Rhyne River from his home in Alsaac-Lorraine, Germany to Rotterdam, Holland, where he boarded the ship " Loyal Judith" with Robert Turpin, as his Master. The ship sailed from Rottendam, then stopped at Cowes, England before arriving at Philadelphia, Penn on September 25, 1732.

Johann George Noll was listed as 36 years of age on the ships list of passengers. Due to the translations of German to English, and also many of the people could read or write the other language. There are numerous spellings of his name on the ships list he is Hans George Noll. On another it is John Jurig Noll, and also found in other records as Hans Jerig Noll. However, they all mean John George Noll
