Christiana Logan is listed in the Henry County Cemetery book as buried in a Logan Cemetery near New Castle in Henry County, Kentucky. According to the book, the inscription on her stone reads "Wife of JL", but John Logan's grave isn't listed.

Unfortunately, while the pension does mention their children, none are named. I've got a copy of the pension application downloaded, shoot me an email and I'll email it back to you.

I am researching Hezekiah John Logan who married Larinda Stewart about 1822

There are a few possibilities for his father living in Henry County and I wondered if you had any information that could point me to his father or parents?

I am in process of going to land records at our library, but any help you might be able to provide I would appreciate.

LOGAN

Looking for info on John Logan (b. 1757 Morris Co., NJ & d. 11 Sept 1841 in Henry or Trimble) was a Rev. Soldier. Trying to connect him with his son Russell T. Logan (b. 31 Jan. 1809 in either Fayette or Henry). Have John's Rev. Papers & Pension papers. Hoping to join DAR and just need this last link with his son. Any help will be appreciated, Linda Davis,GDavis1003@aol.com

Posted 07/31/2007 Surnames: Neff

My great great grandfather was John "Jack" Neff. I have never been able to locate his parents. On two separate censuses he claimed he was born in 1810 in Kentucky. The nearest possibility we have been able to find so far is that there was a Daniel Nave listed on the 1820 census for Newcastle, Henry County. This Daniel Nave had two males in the household between 0- 10 years old. One male was between 18-26. One of the younger males could be our John "Jack" Neff. Daniel, himself, was listed as being over 45 years old. Daniel Neff (who may have been the father of our John "Jack" Neff married Mary "Polly" Logan. Two Logan families also lived in Newcastle, Henry County Kentucky on the 1820 census. Jas Logan was head of one of the families and John Logan was head of the other family. These two families living in the same proximity to each at the right time make a strong case. I am hoping someone in Henry county can look at the records for that area between 1795 and 1820 and see if they locate any documents showing any actions by either of these families and especially anything showing any interactions between the two families.

Thanks, Norman Neff, Gene1527@aol.com
