IV Andrew (Anders, Antti) Pålsson Mullica, Poulson, farmer, b. 1640 Sweden, Mora, Delsbo, d. after 1690 Maryland, Cecil County. Andrew hankki 50 eekkerin tilan Elk Riverin läheltä vuonna 1662. Hän eli vuosina 1683-1690 suomalaiskylässä, jonka nimi oli Sahakitko. Hän myi tilansa vuonna 1690 ja hänen nimeänsä ei löydy kirjoista vuoden 1692 jälkeen.

Andrew (original name Antti), with his parents, emigrated from Sweden to New Sweden, (now Wilmington, Delaware) aboard the ship ORNEN, (EAGLE), in 1654. It must be noted that Ander's area of origination was near Mora, which is in Dalarna, Kopparbergs Län. This event was reported, however, by the member church parish at its headquarters in Delsbo Parish, in Hälsingsland, Gävleborgs Län.

He accompanied his parents in their move to Cecil Cty, Maryland in 1661, known as Andrew Mullica, where he was naturalized on Nov 6, 1683 as "Andrew Poulson alias Mullock", (this a respelling of the family name, Malich/ Mullikka). This was recorded in Kilty's LAWS of MARYLAND, Chapter IV, 1683: An Act Naturalizing Andrew Poulson, (alias Mullock, Swead) and their children. This Act was also reported in the ARCHIVES of MARYLAND,
