Biography

Amos HOUGH (c 1755/60 PA-29 Jan 1829 SC), a minor in 1775 after the death of father Joseph Hough of Anson Co., NC chose Sampson Hough as his guardian on 14 April 1775,^[1] suggesting Sampson was an uncle. Sampson had purchased Lane's Creek, Anson Co., NC land on 16 May 1778 ^[2] from Joel McCLENDON which he sold on 12 Oct 1779 to said nephew Amos,^[3]

The history of his father and probably uncle Daniel Huff comes from the Quaker records of Bucks County, Pennsylvania. One dau in SC 1880, Margaret, stated for the census that her father was born in Pennsylvania; not likely since his father was in NC by 1737. The concluded ancestors were active Quakers when they arrived in PA in 1683. By the second generation, however, they were having disagreements and these generations began to remove themselves (or be removed) from the Society of Friends for varying reasons. By
