

ATT A COURT OF MAGISTRATES HELD ATT NEW HAVEN OCTOB.
16th, 1661.

Present, the Gouvern^r, Deputy Gouvern^r, M^r. Fenn, M^r.
Treate and M^r. Crane.

Samuell Plumb of Brandford, plaint', entered an action of [296] | Deacon Pecke came and p^{ro}ounded to the court that sometime since he had put in security to the deputy govern^r for the appearance of his soune Samuell Andrewes, he thought the court would haue called him to answer, he knew noe reason why he should stand for the thing being long since he desired the court to consider it. M^r. Treate sayd to the gouern^r that it was he that had done it and he might release it, but nothing was done at that time. Afterwards Deacon Pecke came and presented his sou Andrewes to the court according to his security, and desired them to free him. M^r.

Fen and M^r. Treate answered that they looked vpon him free.
The gouern^r answered that he did not know but he was, and he sayd he thought they might leave it ~~as~~, and he sayd he thought Deacon Peckes plea was good enough. M^r. Treate sayd he thought he had fully discharged his duty.

at Stamford.

Sam^l Andrewes was called, & told y^t there had been of late some disorders in y^e troope, in gathering together in such a [385] resolute way at a place in y^e woods and || choosing officers, &c. He was told y^t it had exercised the court how to leave such a trust into such hands that hath soe carried. He answered, that indeed there was such a meeting & officers chosen, but what was done, it was done in submission to the court, & he disowned it as any act of his.

The Court afterwards considering of y^e case about y^e troope, & findeing it not settled according to order, did now order to lay it downe untill further order, & comitted the trumpett & coulors to Roger Alling, the p^rsent jurisdic^on treasurer, alsoe all y^e jurisdic^on stock of a^munition & bookes, untill further order about y^e same.
