

The Testimony of Elizabeth Rays aged 63 years or thereabouts testifieth and doth declare that on or about the seventh day of January 1707 my son consider Tiffany being sick and weak in body doth declare that was desirous to settle his worldly concerns doth declare as followeth I give unto my loving wife all my estate for to bring up my children until my son com of age and then my son Nathan for to have one half of my land abloom and my daughters to have the other half after my wifes decess for to be Equally divided amongst them as attested by me

Elizabeth Rays