

Barnes-Myers Divorce_Cincinnati Enquirer 7 May 1878

Millersburg, Ohio.
THE END OF A DIVORCE SUIT.
MILLERSBURG, May 6.—In the case of Sarah Barnes vs. Enos P. Barnes, in the divorce suit tried at the present term of Court, in which the defendant was to pay as alimony to plaintiff $200 within thirty days, and then $150 every six months during their joint lives, unless modified by the Court or the parties, was to-day put at rest by the defendant decding his Oxford property, valued at $2,000, to the plaintiff, besides an equal division of the personal property. The case has been one of more general interest than any that has occupied the attention of our Court for five years.

📅 Date: 7 May 1878

📍 Place: Ohio

🗨️ Description: Newspaper article