

Changes are coming to Find A Grave. See a preview now.

James Franklin Jernigan

Birth: Dec. 15, 1886
Coffee County
Tennessee, USA

Death: Oct. 21, 1943
Nashville
Davidson County
Tennessee, USA

James Franklin Jernigan was born on December 15, 1886 in Coffee County, Tennessee, the son of Jasper Newton Jernigan (1863-1928) and Amanda (Bynum) Jernigan (1857-1941).

A veteran of World War I, he was a fireman at Nashville Terminals and lived at 2211 28th Avenue South, Nashville. He was 56 years old and the husband of Eudora (Giles) Jernigan when he died in Nashville of a coronary thrombosis "on [the] train" on October 21, 1943. Burial was two days later in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Nashville.

Most of the above is from his Death Certificate, with Mrs Eudora Jernigan of 2211 28th Avenue South, Nashville as the informant.

Family links:

Parents:

Jasper Newton Jernigan (1863 - 1928)
Amanda Bynum Jernigan (1857 - 1941)

Sibling:

James Franklin Jernigan (1886 - 1943)
Mattye Jernigan Davis (1889 - 1911)*

*Calculated relationship

Burial:

Mount Olivet Cemetery
Nashville
Davidson County
Tennessee, USA

Created by: Syd Gardner
Record added: Sep 12, 2014
Find A Grave Memorial# 135790960

Cemetery Photo

Added by: OBXr

Added: Sep. 12, 2014