Notes for ELIAS VARNER:

Elias Varner was a prisoner at Andersonville Prison during the Civil War
He died of consumption contracted during this time known as TB today.
The effects of the illness were a slow process and caused him a painful life.
He served in Corp. Co F 135 National guard unit Civil War Service
He did not get along well with his father Peter Varner and was given only $10.00 in the Will left by Peter Varner, stating that was all that he wished him to have. However, there was a settlement in later years and his brothers and sisters signed a document to give his living heirs their fair share of his share, which was a very small amount each.
