

his widow survived him at the latter date.

Adrian-Pieter-Hellemeg-Roelof Cornelissen and Angenietje Boogaerd had children:

I. Pieter, b. March 8, 1736; m. Rachel Lyne, Oct. 20, 1755; she d. July 26, 1801. They lived in the Wanaque valley. By deed, March 1, 1790, Pieter A. Van Houten, of Pompton, and Rachel his wife, conveyed to Martin G. Ryerson, for £500 New York money, a tract of 135 acres of land on the Wanaque river, near Pieter Van Houten's house.²

II. Willempye, b. May 9, 1739.

III. Claertje (Clarissa), b. May 23, 1741; m. Coenraet Lyne, Jan. 8, 1758, "both living in the bounds of the church at Pompton."

IV. Jacob, b. April 18, 1745.