Biography

John's last name was actually Wilson, as another biography (attached below) states he was John Wilson's son (mother unknown). After William Sharp's death, his wife Mary married second a man named John Wilson. John had a son named John, who is Isaac's stepbrother.

William died in the French & Indian war, (perhaps the war which took place between England and France in America from 1754 to 1763). Source: William and Mary's quarterly vol 10 2nd series Source: History of Washington county (now Green County) William And Mary Sharp are believed to have come to america in 1749, leaving their native land to seek a home in the New World. They first located in the State of South Carolina, where their son Isaac was born April 13, 1750, and the family afterward moved to Virginia. Their son Isaac remained with his parents until after attaining his majority, and then left the paternal roof, coming to Green county, Penn. Isaac located near Waynesburgh, Penn. following surveying and schoolteaching. About the year 1777 he was united in marriage with Mary WOOLVERTON, who was born April 22, 1761, daughter of John and Abigail WOOLVERTON.

LETTER: FROM MARY TO HER SON, ISAAC My dear and affectionate son, I am glad to inform you we are in good health at present, blessed be God for His unspeakable favors. Hoping with all sincerity and ardent affection, you are in the same healful condition. I received a letter from you this day dated Oct 27. Eleven months after which gave me much satisfaction to hear of your bodily health and it the more added joy to hear that you are still teaching school. Dear child consider well, that while you are employed ...y .. bodily support see that your mind be employed of the welfare of your soul but if you should gain the whole world and lose your soul what advantage itnever....conformed to this world, but be ye transformed in the renewing of your mind, that you may know the will of God concerning you. Abstain from all evil company, lest you be partaker of their evil deeds. Such is the Kingdom of God and his righteousness and all good things shall be added unto you. Keep yourself, my dear son, unspotted from the world. You know my advice to you when we last parted concerning these associations which I expect you to keep in obedience to me, as you may readily conclude, I would in no wise advise you to your hurt. We are talking of going to South Carolina again next Spring. John's son, John, who lives there was here, but I hardly think we will go. Be sure to miss no opportunity of writing to me. I would be glad to see you and having nothing more to write, I remain Your Affectionate Mother
