

Deacon Azariah Crane

Birth: Apr. 2, 1649
 Death: Nov. 5, 1730
 Essex County
 New Jersey, USA

Azariah Crane (1649-1730) began life as a tanner by trade but later on became Deacon of the First Presbyterian Church of Newark, New Jersey. He also was a founder of Cranetown (later known as Montclair), New Jersey. Perhaps he is best remembered for bequeathing a silver bowl "to be used forever" to the church, where he served as Deacon from 1690 to 1730. The bowl is still available for viewing today.

Mary (Mariah) CRANE Married John BALDWIN
ABT 1717 in Newark, Essex County, New Jersey, USA

Inventor Thomas Edison is a descendant.

Marker:
She is not listed in the church's list of burials.
The early cemetery records were destroyed in a fire and the current records reflect a survey done much later when Mary's marker was probably no longer legible or was missing.
