Title: Tennessee Land Grants, Cocke County

Web page:

Citation: Book 2, page 265, Tennessee Land Grants, Cocke County, E Distict.

Notes: This is an 1810 state land grant which granted to John McGlohalin 135 acres for a price of $135. This is a parcel of land on the East side of English Mountain and along the Sinking Creek. Currently, this property is in Cocke County, Tennessee. The grant gives a description which does not give a precise location. However, it is believed that this is in the area of the small settlement called Carson Springs. This property is within 5 miles of the original site of the Big Pigeon Baptist Church where the John McGlothlan family was associated.

Title: Probate File for John McLaughlin - File dated 3 November 1828

Web page:

Citation: The probate file, dated November 3, 1828, is of record under the name John McLaughlin at the Circuit Court of Lafayette Co., Missouri, Probate Division II, P.O. Box 557, 1102 Main Street, Lexington, MO 64067. this probate record is listed in Probate Court Index Book 1, page 96 for Lafayette Co., Missouri

Notes: This probate records lists s spouse named Sarah (unknown) and the following 7 children: 1) Susannah McLaughlin who married John Keeny, 2) Elizabeth McLaughlin who married Isaac Lewis, 3) Charles McLaughlin, 4) Margaret McLaughlin who married William Lewis, 5) Rebecca McLaughlin who married Wm Davis, 6) Mary McLaughlin who married Jonathan Keeny, and 7) John McLaughlin (Jr). This record doesn't mention whether there were any other children, living or deceased.

This file shows he was born in 1754, enlisted in Bedford Co., Virginia in February 1776. He served in the 5th VA line during his first (two year) enlistment. Later, he served in the Battle of Guilford Court House which was located in North Carolina. The probate and pension files also show that John McLaughlin, Sr. lived near Eddyville, KY between 1818 and 1827, was palsied, inform, destitute and mostly blind at that time, was married to a woman named Sarah of about his own age, moved with his son John McGlothlin, Jr. to Lafayette Co., MO in 1827, and died in Lafayette Co., MO on 17 July 1828.

From Don McGlothlen: Please note that this Probate file, dated in 1828, shows that John McLaughlin, Sr's widow was alive at the time of probate, late 1828. She was in Lafayette Co, MO at that time, per the probate file papers. Therefore, she could not have died in 1808 as stated in this Family search File, as of January, 2016. Also, there is no source for her maiden name being "Asher" in any record that is noted or that I have heard of.
