This is taken from the book "Movelda on The Run".

"1 Archibald Steele . . . was born, possibly in Scotland but probably in England of Scotch parentage, about 1728; migrated to Dublin, Ireland, where he married Agnes Edwards, about 1757. She was born 1720, in Dublin, Ireland, but was Scotch. They came to America probably in 1766 and settled first in Lancaster County, Pa. In 1772 they removed to York district (now York Co.), South Carolina, where he died 28 Oct. 1805, and she 28 June 1813."
