

THE HISTORY OF THE
LUTHERAN AND REFORMED CHURCH

The building shared by the Lutheran and Reformed (see Unit of Church of Christ) congregations of Edinboro Church was destroyed by fire January 16, 1953, and with it the church's records of the congregations. Fortunately, the independent translations had been made, one by W. H. Hume for the Historical Society of the Reformed Church, Lancaster Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and the other through the aid of Paul D. Hahn. The following pages are a typed copy of the full translation of the original of the year. The information of interest is contained in the original volume. For interest, the original is available by letter from the page 13-2 of this document, P. D. Hahn, who was LUTHERAN AND REFORMED CHURCH and added to it in the present day. The original is in German. The original is in the possession of the Lutheran Church of Washington Township, Northumberland County,
