CaliforniaPTAIN THOMAS CaliforniaRTER of "BARFORD"
LouisianaNCaliforniaSTER County, VIRGINIA

In 1650, Captain Thomas Carter of Bedfordshire England arrived in Virginia He was twenty-one years old at the time, and it has been suggested that he was forced to come to the New World by circumstances of his birth. As the youngest son, he had no interest in the family estate, and life in Virginia offered the prospect of acquiring wealth and status through hard work. He became eminently successful as a tobacco planter and trader.

The history of Captain Thomas Carter and his descendants is so intertwined with that of the family of Col. John Carter of Corotoman.

In the book "The History of the Carter Family" mentions that Ancell Carter being the father of Thomas but I have not researched this....Other sources state that Ancell is not the father of Thomas Carter.

Thomas Carter first settled in Nansemond County, Virginia about 1649/50 and later at Barford in Lancaster County, Virginia

The Lancaster County, records first recorded his presence in 1653 as "Mr. Tho. Carter. — page 209 "The History of the Carter Family"

Thomas was magistrate and Captain in the Militia, 1667. A vestryman of Church Christ. A member of the House of Burgesses.

Records do indicate that he was a tobacco planter and merchant in Lancaster County,. He purchased his first plantation of about eight hundred acres on the "Easter most branch of the Corotoman River from Col. John Carter," and on 1 June 1654 acknowledged the debt in court--"12,852 pounds of tobacco to be paid the following October at ye dwelling house of the said Mr. Tho: Carter."

 In 1656, he purchased an additional 560 acres from George Marsh and in 1658 purchased another plantation from Edmund Lunsford. He also acquired over the thirty years patents or ownership to well over a thousand acres of land, indicating that at the time of his death about 1700 he quite well situated.
 --Lancaster land records page # unreadable.

Old court records show Thomas Carter served occasionally as an attorney for various nonresidents of Lancaster County, who had legal business in his area.
 The records read: "October ye 21st 1663.

1670 Marriage of Thomas and Katherine was recorded in the old Carter Prayer Book as follows: With this Book per Rev. Mr. John Shepperd on Wednesday ye 4th Day of May 1670---was Married Mr Thomas Carter of Barfordin ye County, of Lancaster in Virginia & Katherine Dale ye eldest daughter of Mr. Edw. Dale ye same County,.

This marriage produced ten sons and three daughters. Three sons died in their youth, William and Nicholas, the twins and Daniel. One daughter Diana died at the age of 2.

The name "Barford" (home of Captain Thomas Carter) first appears in the Carter Prayer Book which is in the possession of the Virginia Historical Society.

8 Dec 1674 Edward Dale gave 500 acres to son-in-law Thomas Carter and Captain Thomas Carter died October 22, 1700 at the age of 70 and his will was probated on November 14 of the same year. His estate was divided as follows: Wife Katherine to have the home plantation for the rest of her life, a Negro man named Dick, the great table, and one-third of the remainder of my personal property. Sons Edward, Thomas, Henry (then in England) and John to each have a hundred acres of land; son James to have the land devised to Henry if the latter does not return from England. Son Thomas to have the home plantation after the death of his mother. The rest of my real and personal estates to be divided equally between all children.

signed: Thomas Carter

"The History of the Carter Family"

The personal estate was valued at 236 Pounds, which was a goodly sum, and included a : parcel of old Books" a silver drinking pot, tankard, and twelve silver spoons, beside the usual household and plantation furnishings of a man of class.

Throughout the descendents of Captain Thomas Carter you will see who owned land and who sold it in time. The heirs of Captain Thomas Carter, were grandsons that ended up selling the last parts of the land that was owned by their Grandfather. The first being sold in 1742 by James Gordon. The last being sold to James Gordon in 1782.

The land was then referred to as Verville. This was called Gordonsville, in 1784, which included the house on this land. All the land mentioned above was owned by the Captain Thomas Carter families in the early 18th century.
