

Emily Andrews Burton died on August 19, 2001, in Salt Lake City, Utah at the University of Utah Medical Hospital after complications from heart surgery.

She was born on August 12, 1931, in Magna, Utah to Constandino and Jenny Andrews, she was the youngest of seven children.

Her family moved to McGill, Nevada in 1936, where Emily attended McGill Grade School. Her family then moved back to Salt Lake City in 1945, where she attended and graduated from Cyprus High School. She worked until 1954 when she met and married Max D. Burton. Max and Emily were married September 12, 1953 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Later solemnized in the Logan L.D.S. Temple on January 16, 1963.

She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, being a member of the Draper Sixth Ward. Her main hobby was her husband and her Grand kids.

She is survived by her husband Max D. Burton; sons: Mitchell D. (Cheryl) Burton, Max D. (Katheryn) Burton Jr., daughter, Joni Jean (David) Courtright; stepdaughter; Michelle and DeWayne Evans; 17 grandchil-