Notes

Since he later sold the land, it appears that Richard inherited at least his father's 1682 grant of 320 acres. In exchange for transporting four persons. He obtained a second 170 acre grant on the south side of Blackwater Swamp on 26 Apr 1711. On 26 Oct 1719. Richard Vick, Yeoman, and wife Sarah, of the Lower Parish of Isle of Wight County, sold 100 acres adjoining a piece sold to my brother William Vick by me, to Lewis Bryan, a grandson of Hodges Council. The land was described as being a part of Richard's patent dated 26 Apr 1711. Over the next several years, Richard's holdings on the South side of the Nottoway River grew to more than 1,000 acres. On the 22nd of Feb 1724, he was granted 300 acres on the south side of the river and the North side of Cypress Swamp for twenty-five shillings and the transportation of John Webb. Three other headrights granted between 1730 and 1731 further increased Richard's holding on Cypress Swamp. He developed these land holdings into large tobacco plantations. Richard did not limit his land purchases to just Virginia, he also bought land across the border in Bertie County, North Carolina between 1723 and 1726. These grants added an additional 440 acres. Notes from Colonial Bertie County, NC (Deed book A-H -1720 to 1757): Richard Vick of Isle of Wight, To Thomas Kirby Feb. 1725 - 2000 lbs. of Pork for 290 Acres on Pottekerse Creek adjacent to Thomas Drake. Patent dated 5 Apr 1723. Also, Richard Vick and wife Sarah of Isle of Wight, VA To William Shuffell - 20 Jul 1735 - 10 Pounds & 10 Shillings for 130 Acres At Pottycasey Creek Adjacent to John Tinney. Land formerly granted Thomas Kirby by Patent to Vick dated 20 Jul 1726.

GEDCOM Note

Joseph Vick, (born - Abt 1640 & died - Abt 1695) - Almost all Vick's are descendents of this Joseph Vick. In the search for Vick family origins, our earliest find was a Flemish weaver, Richard Veke, in Kings Stanley in 1270. The original family name was Leveske, an old French surname meaning Bishop, In classic English Fashion, the French name mutated into Le Veck, then Veck and eventually Vick.

The centuries passed, and in 1640 Joseph Vick was born in Kings Stanley, a younger son of Richard Vick (b. - abt 1604). By this time, foreign competition had nearly ended the weaving trade, and a younger son had little choice except to find another means of supporting himself. So young Joseph headed for Bristol, 30 miles away, and took passage to Virginia, landing in Isle of Wight County, across the James River from Jamestown by about 1675. He obviously came with money as he quickly purchased land and began farming (his land is now in Southampton County, VA). His neighbors included Tom Joyner from Dorset and Anthony Fulgham from Cheshire (by way of Barbados), both also from England.

Joseph married Lucy Council (the girl next door), and their children were Richard, John, Robert, Joseph, William and Matthew. Their son, Richard, married Sarah Whitehead and they had Arthur, William, Josiah, Richard, Jacob, Joshua, Jesse and Mary. This next son Richard married Ann and had John, Richard, Tabitha, Selah, Wilson, Benjamin, Henry, Patience, Achsah, Nancy, Nathan and Michele. All of the male children in this latter family had moved to Nash County, NC., By about 1780, looking for freshland. This creates a genealogical challenge. Josiah Jolly Bunn Vick is the grandson of the last Richard (b. 1745) above. His mother was Margaret Bunn, daughter of William Bunn of Nash County, and widow of William Parker (d. 1821). His father, Josiah Vick, was postmaster at Vickersville (near Sharpesburg) in 1839 and spent his last years in Elm City. Josiah Jolly Bunn Vick did serve in the Civil War. Isaac, Jesse, Jacob, Joseph served in the North Carolina Line of the Continental Army during the Revolution.

Joseph Vick, (born - Abt 1640 & died - Abt 1695).
