Byron James Tempest

Birth: Oct. 19, 1938
Death: Dec. 28, 2012

Byron James Tempest, 74, passed away Friday, December 28, 2012 at his home in St. George, Utah.

He was born October 19, 1938 in Murray, Utah, and was the third son of Henry Golden Tempest and Bertha Mae Minshew.

After his mother's death when he was three, he was raised by his father's second wife, Irene Nelson, who had another son, Keith.

Byron graduated from Olympus High School in 1957 and joined the U.S. Army Reserves.

He served a mission for the LDS Church in the New England States Mission from 1958-60 and attended Brigham Young University.

He married Beverly Kay Jackson May 18, 1963. They were later sealed in the Salt Lake Temple. They raised 5 children in Sandy, Utah.

He worked at Kennecott Copper for 37 years, retiring in 2001.

After retiring, he lived in St. George during the winter to enjoy the warm weather and Fairview, Utah during the summer.

Byron was a friend to all who met him and always enjoyed good humor.

He enjoyed association with many lifelong friends. He loved to golf and watch sports- especially BYU football and basketball. He was an avid Cougar sports fan.

He served in church callings throughout his life including stake missionary, Seventy and High Priest.

He loved the Lord with all his heart and touched the lives of many as he taught by knowledge and example.

He was a great father and grandfather. He loved being with his children and grandchildren, sincerely loving and taking interest in each family member. All loved to be visited by him.

He is survived by his wife, Beverly; children (and their spouses): Deborah (Mark), Katherine (Richard), David (RaChelle), Michelle (Chad) and Jennifer (Paul); 24 grandchildren; 1 great grandchild; brother, Keith (Diane); parents-in-law, Warren and Chelta.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Henry Golden Tempest, Bertha Mae Minshew and Irene Nelson; brothers, Blaine Tempest and Ray Tempest; and great granddaughter Trinady Baxter.

On Christmas day (just three days prior to his death) Byron asked about having a sign made for his home which reads, "Wise men still seek Him." Byron was truly a wise man who sought Him.
