Sylonia Hale was the younger of two daughters born to Milton and Susanna (Brown) Hale, who had settled in the Albany area prior to the birth of their children. Sylonia was born March 1st, 1856. She married John David Burkhart, one of 13 children of C.D. and Lavonia Burkhart, in 1885. John David was a farmer and he and Sylonia lived in West Albany on their farm for the rest of their lives. They never had any children, but they were happy together on their farm in Linn County. John died at the age of 61, just a few weeks before his 62nd birthday, due to prostate cancer; he had had surgery, but the cancer had spread too far. Sylonia buried her beloved husband at the Riverside Cemetery and lived out the rest of her life as a widow. She died in the Albany hospital from heart failure at the age of 83 and was buried next to her dear husband at Riverside Cemetery in Albany, Linn County, Oregon.

Fred George Burkhart was one of thirteen children born of the marriage of Coriolanus Domarus ('CD', "Crill") Burkhart and Caroline Burkhart of Linn County, Oregon. He was born on their donation land claim near Harrisburg on November 1st, 1857 and was raised on his family's farm with his many brothers and sisters. He married Laura Hale on Apr 18, 1888 in Linn, Oregon and they farmed a portion of his father's original donation land claim in the North Harrisburg area from 1910 until about the 1920's. They then moved to Salem, Marion County, where they purchased a home at 175 So. 17th in Salem. They were both in their golden years, Fred reaching the age of 72 in 1930, and Laura reaching the age of 67 that same year. Fred passed from this life the following year, just before Christmas, on Dec 23rd, 1931, from Myocarditis (an infection of the lining of the heart) at the age of 73. Laura continued on until 1961, reaching the age of 98 years. The couple never had any children. They are buried together at Riverside Cemetery, Albany, Linn County, Oregon, but are in Eternity, together again, Forever.

Fred George Burkart's father, "Crill" Burkhart, was the brother of my great, great grandfather, Leander Columbus Burkhart. Revised 5 Apr 2015
