

2278. Dennis Garrett

Descendants of Dennis GARRETT

Dennis Garrett appears in Baltimore County Land Records on 2 March 1685/6 when Edward Mumford sold to Dennis Garrett and Thomas Stone the 100 acre tract Long Island Point. Some genealogies have claimed that he was the son of Francis Garrett of Virginia and Mary Dennis. Also it is claimed in several genealogies that his wife, Barbary, was the sister-or-daughter of Thomas Stone. There was a deed from Thomas Stone to Dennis Garrett's widow where he conveyed part of the tract of Long Island Point to her. Some have interpreted the wording of this deed as implying a relationship between Thomas and Barbary. Dennis Garrett died of wounds received from Capt. John Oldton on July 31, 1691. Oldton hit him on the head with a sword worth 20 shillings and died 2 Sept. 1691. The trial records provide information on the event for which John Oldton was found guilty of murder, but later pardoned. The attack took place in front of Dennis' family and his son-in-law John Cole was a witness at the trial.

Dennis GARRETT was born about 1650. He died on 1 Sep 1691 in Baltimore Co., MD.

He was married to Barbary (Barbara) STONE (daughter of STONE) about 1674. Barbary (Barbara) STONE was born on 5 Mar 1654. She signed a will on 19 Jan 1732. She died in Jan 1733 in St. Pauls Parish, Baltimore Co MD. She had an estate probated on 6 Aug 1733. Dennis GARRETT and Barbary (Barbara) STONE had the following children:

- i. Johanna Garrett married John Cole
- * ii. Frances GARRETT married Nicholas Haile

Thomas Stone and Dennis Garrett purchased "Long Island Point" in 1683 in Anne Arundel County, and in 1691 Thomas Stone gave his moiety in this land to the children of Dennis Garrett, deceased, and stated it was for his love and affection.

From: Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties by JD Warfield

Doc # [4]