Tina,
 Thanks for you input on the Humphrey's line. I think Gwen Humphrey Bell should have some good input on this. I have Jehu as the son of J.P. Humphreys since he was born in 1797 and J. P. 1759? Also wondering about Sarah Elizabeth Gayle? I didn't know about her until this week, but also didn't seen anything about Sarah Carnes, do you think she could be the Sarah E. Gayle?

Barbara,

It is my impression that someone read his name wrong. He is sometimes listed as Jehu, however, when looking at these old handwritten records, John sometimes looks like Jehu. My impression is that Jehu is actually John.

I have two in my database, although I am not very familiar with the lines just yet. I'm still learning about my Humphreys.

(John P. Humphreys (1) Sarah Carnes, (2) Elizabeth White
 He was b. 13 Jun 1797 in Marlboro Co., SC and d. 20 Jun 1851 in Wilkinson Co., MS)

Hopefully, someone else can straighten us out on whether there are two of them or not. I know I have another 'Jehu' in the lines, but he was born 1851 and died 1852.

I have been looking further into the Nathaniel Humphrey line and have couple of questions,

1. Are J.P. Humrhey and Jehu P. Humphreys one in the same. Each have different birth dates but seemed to have been married to the same lady, Sarah Elizabeth Gayle? I have not seen her name before and can anyone help me on this? Elizabeth White doesn't appear on the line for J.P. Humphrey but does on Jehu P Humphreys.

J.P. Humphrey b. 1759 SC/ d. 1840 Wilkinson
 Jehu P Humphreys b. Jun 13, 1797 Marlboro SC/ d. Jun 1851 Wilkinson, MS

Barbara
