

Captain John Killian in Far West, Missouri

[1838] "Far West, where I resided, which was the shire town of Caldwell county, was placed under the charge of a captain by the name of John Killian, who made my house his headquarters. Other portions of the troops were distributed in different portions of the county, wherever danger was apprehended. In consequence of Captain Killian making any house his headquarters, I was put in possession of all that was going on, as all intelligence in relation to the operations of the mob was communicated to him." (History of the Church, Vol.3, Appendix, p.457 VI. TESTIMONY OF SIDNEY RIGDON.)
