

Something about the Dulaney Family"

: "Something about the Dulaney (Dulany) Family and a sketch of the Southern Cobb Family by Benjamin Lewis Dulaney Washington, D.C. press of W. F. Roberts Co. Washington, D. C. copied from title page 47.

Irish Name O'Delaney, is "Irish of the Irish" see page 9-16 it was pure blood of royal line. Kept pure and responsible for family blood staying pure. "None more guarded then in Ireland."

Stories, Memories & Histories "Something about the Dulaney (Dulany) family" : and a sketch of the southern Cobb family page 49 Joseph Dulany, Youngest of three brothers, here designated as Joseph Dulany (1). "lived first at Port Tobacco, Maryland; then at St George Parish, Virginia. Served in Virginia Militia for a while. He married Mary Lewis (1714-1715), daughter of the elder Zachary Lewis, who settled in Prince William County in 1692 and had seven sons (possibly more) viz., Joseph, Daniel, William, Zachary, Charles, Lewis, and Elkanah; and at least two daughters; one married Augustine Smith, and another married _____Barbee; (the citations given show that Joseph Dulany (1) gave negroes to his grandsons, John Smith, Andrew Barbee, and Joseph Dulany, of William.)

The sons and daughters and grandsons and granddaughters of Joseph, in the course of 50 years, married into scores of prominent families of Northern Virginia—the Roberts, the Frenches, the Feilds, the Blackwells, the Slaughters, the Strothers, the Wallers, the Lewises, the Carters, the Routs, the Meriwethers, and other leading families

See Jane Dulaney & Andrew Barbee book p. 49-59.

Book Spotsylvania County Records 1721-1800 Transcriptions from the original files at the County Court house:

Page 134- June-28-1734 97-acres in Saint George Parish, Spotsylvania County granted to Delaney by pat. SEP 28, 1728. John Latham, James x Roy. July-2-1734. Mary, wife of Joseph Delaney, acknowledged her dower, etc.

(21)

Land Record - Alexander Spotswood, Esqr.

1734 , Spotsylvania Co., VA

Book Spotsylvania County Records-1721-1800-Being Transcriptions , from the Original Files at the County Court House, of Wills, Deeds, Administrator's and Guardians Bonds, Marriage Licenses and list of Revolutionary Pensioners. Edited by William Armstrong Crozier. Publisher B

Page 137-NOV-2-1734 Alexander Spotswood, Esqr., to Robert Allistone, planter. Lease of 100 acres in St Mark's Parish, Spotsylvania County, VA. on South side Rapidan-part of tract granted Spotswood and called Spotswood tract. "Robert Allistone and his son, Jacob Allistone," etc. Joseph Delaney, William x Bunting, Thomas Lewis.

(21)

JOSEPH DULANEY 1682-1769 Brother-in-law to Doctor Zachary Lewis who named the Cumberland Gap and was the first white man to enter what is now Kentucky.