Melba-Do you have a paper trail that would help Elizabeth and me prove that this William and the William Faucett of Union County, South Carolina are indeed the same person? The William Faucett of Union County, SC left that county circa 1830. Several of his sisters and their families left around the same time and all apparently ended up in Alabama. William and his sisters were the children of Richard and Nancy Whitlock Faucett of Union County. William had a brother and an uncle named Samuel. The first Faucett in Union County was a William Faucett who first appears in land records in Union County in 1775/85. Mark Faucett told me in an email that this William was the father of the above Richard Faucett as well as Samuel, Giles Night and several other Faucett sons. Giles Night Faucett had a son named William and I suspect Samuel did too. It appears these two William Faucetts remained in Union County for their entire lives. I am the great-great-grandson of William (Probably a son of Samuel or Giles Night Faucett) and Victoria Mize Faucett. I have been trying to determine which Faucett my William descends from. I have hundreds of Faucetts from Union County and would like to add William Faucett of Alabama to my data base if we can prove his kinship to the Union County, SC clan.
