Les, Recently moved back to South Carolina after a brief stay in Kingsport, Tennessee. I am actively researching the Faucetts in Union, Spartanburg, Chester and Fairfield Counties (most were on Browns Creek in Union County, SC where William Faucett bought land in 1775). I am entering all my Giles Night Faucett research into a Family Tree Maker file. He had a son named William, but I think he remained in Union County and died there in the 1870s or 1880s. There is a Thompson Faucett who shows up in neighboring Spartanburg County, I think by 1820, also a Rueben Faucett-later in Georgia. I think it is very possible Thompson and Rueben of Spartanburg County and Richard, Samuel and Giles Night Faucett of Union County were sons of the first William of 1775. The names passed down through the generations also speaks of a strong connection with the Faucetts of Orange County, NC. I tried to email you at the posted address and it was returned. If you are still researching this family, please contact me.
