Hi, Riley--

In reply to your query re Philip or Philemon -- all that I know is that he was Philip KILLIAN s/o John (Johannes) Killiam, Sr. b. 1725-26 in Germany; d. 1795 in Lincoln Co., NC and Anna Elizabeth [Vollbrecht] Fullbright b. 1730-40 in Germany, d. Nov 1820 in Lincoln Co., NC & buried at Salem Lutheran & Reformed Church Cemetery.

Regarding Mary Hoskins or Hockings -- she was d/o Benjamin Hoskins b. c. 1750 Edenton, Chowan Co., NC and Rachel Chester b. c. 1750 near Edenton, Chowan Co., NC.

I suggest you check out Gerald Affeldt's and Terri Clayton's web site at: <http://ww4.choice.net/~micosaur/hager/amain.htm>. (gosh, I hope this is still correct). They have some good data here! The last e-mail address that I have for them is: micosaur@isoc.net

Happy Hunting!

Ann

P.S. to "Killian Cousins"--

As soon as our home is sold in Maryland, Sid and I will be moving to Brevard, Transylvania Co., NC and building our new home which will be on top of a mountain and on a small lake. We will be renting "somewhere" while construction takes place. We have started packing and my genealogy files are in boxes--but the lids are still off and unsealed so that I can still get into them! Of course, I will let everyone know when <annsid@erols.com> is shut down. Hopefully, I will be back on the Internet ASAP in Brevard!
