Abigail Wilbur was born on November 17, 1731, in Smithfield, Providence County, Rhode Island. She was the first of six children born to Jeremiah Wilbur and Hannah Records. When her mother died, while at a young age, her father married Mary Smith, so after that, she was known as the daughter of Mary.

When Abigail was 18 years old, she married a widower named Joshua Sprague, who was 20 years old, in Rhode Island. She then raised his year old daughter as her own. They had their first six children there – Abigail in 1750; Elijah on February 2, 1751; Nancy on October 23, 1753; Meribal on December 17, 1754; William on January 3, 1756; and James in 1761. They had six more children in Sackville, Nova Scotia, Canada – Frederick on October 17, 1762; Amy Lina Luna on November 12, 1763, Joshua Jr. about 1765; Jonathan on January 9, 1767; Nehemiah in 1770; and Samuel about 1774. Her last child, Wilbur was born in 1777 in East Hoosac (now Adams) in Berkshire County, Massachusetts.
