

It further appears that Duke N. Hunter, superintendent of public buildings in Shawnee County, in accordance with Kansas Statutes, passed A. D. 1855, entered into articles of agreement with one Luther M. Carter, of Westport, Missouri, whereby the said Carter agreed to "furnish all necessary materials and labor, and in all respects finish the "Court House" in the town of Tecumseh, so far as said building may require brick-work and lathing and plastering, and painting excepted."

And said Carter was to receive therefor, the bonds of the County of Shawnee, to the amount of three thousand two hundred and thirteen dollars,

Luther M. Carter vs. the Board of Commissioners of Shawnee county: W. Shannon—Brockway & Brockway. Dismissed at plaintiff's cost.

—Mr. Luther M. Carter, an old and respected citizen, is lying dangerously ill at his residence, corner of McGee and Tenth streets.

—A grand assembly takes place at the Kansas City, April 28.—There has been several robberies committed here within the past week. One man was discovered last night under the bed in a lady's room, but escaped before the police could secure him.

The re-union of volunteers of the Mexican war will take place in this city on Friday next.

Mr. Luther M. Carter died yesterday evening. He was one of our oldest citizens, and once mayor of Westport, when this city was only a steamboat landing.
