

17 January 1791

STOLEN on the 12th of December last, about three miles from Fayetteville, a BAY HORSE, five years o'd thick and chunky, long tail, has a small star in his forehead, is 14 hands high.—Also stolen at the same time, a BROWN MAKE, eight years old, fourteen hands high, with a grey star in her forehead has a long tail, also a grey spot behind her left ear, and a small hole called the nose-evil, between one of her eyes and nostrils—both hind feet white—they both trot naturally, do no not recollect any brand on either. Any person who will deliver them to the subscriber in Charlotte, Mecklinburg county, or secure them and give him information so that they may be had, shall receive TEN POUNDS reward.

EVAN SHELBY.

Jan. 24, 1791. 72—73