From the research of Frederick C. Hart, Jr.:

Possibly through associations at an earlier residence in Hartford, CT, Abigail Bouton became acquainted with Ebenezer Smith. Ebenezer met an untimely death in Hadley leaving his young family fatherless. Abigail appears to have left Hadley with her younger children soon after this time and made a reverse migration to Norwalk, CT, where most of her immediate family still resided, in particular her younger sister Elizabeth, who had married Edmund Waring in 1698 and was also rearing a young family.
